
Definition 0.1. A universal covering is a simply connected covering. They are unique up to homeomorphism.

Example 1. Suppose that X is a finite connected CW complex such that $\pi_1(X)$ is finite and nontrivial. Prove that the universal covering \tilde{X} of X cannot be contractible.

Proof.

□